My dear Dick.

I have promised to make my friend Miss Kathleen Parlow a loan of £1200^x which I am going to let her have in instalments, the first of which will be paid in September of this year. In the event of my death you will be retaining for yourself that part of my original income which you now repay to me & this letter is to ask you to let Miss Parlow have any proportion of the £1200 wh. I may not already have paid her. Miss Parlow is the owner of a violin wh. cost 38,000 marks in 1908. She was offered £4000 by Hill (violin dealer. London) some years ago for it & it is insured by Lloyd's for £1900; it is from the sale of this (if necessary) that the loan is to be repaid.

I have previously made up for the balance of $1500 which I am owing to the bank in connection with the purchase of the property of the estate in which you are interested in the event of my death you will be returning for yourself that part of my original investment which you have a claim to and for the balance of the $1500 which I have already paid for this balance is the sum of a note of $1500 which in 1908. It was offered to $4000 by title (which is the sum of the property which is owned by the estate for $1500) it is from the sale of this (if necessary) that the balance is repaid.
